March 3, 2021March 4, 2021

It’s a Wild Day in the Neighborhood

Few people complain that they don’t have enough mosquitoes, mice, rats, ticks or lice in their backyards. Fewer still complain...

In News
Read More
Short-term Animal Guests Bring Joy to Those Who Foster Them

Picture this: You’re sitting comfortably on the couch, working on your laptop computer from home, as five tiny kittens purr...

In News
Read More
A Partner for Animals and People

Some know the Animal Welfare League of Alexandria (AWLA) as the place where they adopted their best friend. Others know...

In News, Stories
Read More

Two Dogs, One Family Add Up to Joy for Everyone

It’s never too late in life to find love. Even for senior dogs. Mary Carter and her family know all...

In Happy Stories
Read More
So Many Homes for the Pawlidays

The holidays are often a perfect time for families to welcome a new pet into their home, which means our...

In Happy Stories, News
Read More
December 9, 2020

Vaccinations Made Easy at Drive-In Clinics for Pets

At a time when vaccines are top of people’s minds, the Animal Welfare League of Alexandria (AWLA) is offering a...

In News
Read More

November 25, 2020

Feeling Thankful for our Senior Pets

November is Adopt a Senior Pet Month, which gives all of us at the Animal Welfare League of Alexandria just...

In Happy Stories, News
Read More
Wildlife in Trouble? Experienced Team to the Rescue

The call from distraught Alexandria city employees was urgent. They needed the AWLA to help with a tiny, furry problem:...

In News
Read More
October 28, 2020

Celebrating Pit Bull Awareness Month This October

October is Pit Bull Awareness Month, as if we needed another reason to talk about the many wonderful pups who...

In Animal-related Information
Read More

October 14, 2020

Celebrating Adopt a Shelter Dog Month

October is Adopt a Shelter Dog Month, so named to help bring awareness to the many adoptable dogs who are...

In Animals in need of Foster/Adoption, Happy Stories, News
Read More
Pet Pantry’s Doors Wide Open for a Community in Need

Linda Easley didn’t know where to turn. In recent years she had suffered a debilitating injury, lost her mobile home...

In News
Read More
Remembering a Friend to Wildlife

Over the past decade, one of Virginia wildlife’s greatest resources was Dogue Hollow Wildlife Sanctuary, a nonprofit in Lorton dedicated...